INTRODUCTION

CANTANDO Y APRENDIENDO is designed for music teachers to use with the Spanish Curricula Development Center series or with other bilingual instructional materials. It consists of songs based on the . SCDC Reading Series for the Language Arts strand Kits 2-11.

The objective of the song book is to reinforce listening and comprehension skills through musical experiences. The songs stress auditory discrimination and the identification of tone and timbre in sounds. It also presents concepts to expand the child's experiences in music appreciation, singing, and rhythmic expression.

Various songs are related to the story "Popa viaja a Puerto Rico" from the SCDC Reading Series and are culturally relevant to the Puerto Rican child.
